

50 Sensory Spelling Activities

Build words using Scrabble pieces	Jump on a trampoline, saying each letter out loud	Spell words with legos on a lego mat	Create words using pipe cleaners.	Type the spelling words on a keyboard.
Using your finger, spell the words in sand or salt.	Write the words using a white crayon, then paint over them.	Using a dry-erase marker, practice writing words on a window.	Spell words with alphabet cookies.	Spell words with magnetic letters on a refrigerator.
Create words using play dough.	Spell words using a string of yarn to make each letter.	Spell words outside with sidewalk chalk.	Make word pyramids t th the	Using letter beads, thread the letters onto the string to create words.
Paint the words	Create words using craft sticks.	Build words using letter stamps.	Spell the words out loud, clapping for each letter.	Using letter blocks, create towers by spelling the words.
Spell words with alphabet noodles.	Using a dry-erase marker, practice words on a mirror.	Spell words with rocks collected from the outdoors.	Text the words to a friend or grandparent.	Spell words using cotton balls.
Using an alphabet stencil, draw the words onto paper.	Spell the words out loud, jumping on one foot for each letter.	Sing each letter out loud to build the words.	Spell the words out loud while jumping rope.	Make alphabet rocks, then spell the words.
Rhythmically spell words, using a metronome.	Using a stick, spell words in gravel or sand.	Spell each word out loud, alternating between a low voice and a high voice.	Build words using letter stickers.	Swing and spell: Say each letter as you pump forward and backward.
Spell words with leaves collected from the outdoors.	Using your body, create each letter in order.	Write the spelling words in a silly way.	Make a word search using the spelling words.	Create the words using buttons.
Spell words out loud while sitting and standing for every other letter.	Using old magazines, cut out letters to form the spelling words.	Create the words using dried beans.	Spell the words out loud while going up the stairs. (One letter per stair.)	Using a stick, spell words in the dirt or mud.
Write the words on a big chalkboard.	Create the words using pretzels.	Form the words by using a wet noodle for each letter.	Spell each word out loud, alternating between a whisper and a yell.	Create the words using chocolate chips.

